LIFE REFLECTIONS

*"For I know the plans I have for you," says the Lord. "They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope."
Jeremiah 29:11 (NLT)*

Roslyn Cherrie Royal Singleton "Roz" was born on January 16, 1983, in Camden, South Carolina, to Ms. Tracey L. Nathaniel. Roz was raised by the late Reverend Carol Royal and Deacon George Royal, Sr., as their beautiful daughter. Roslyn graduated from Lugoff-Elgin High School in Lugoff, South Carolina, in 2001. Roslyn was a very competitive athlete in high school, playing basketball and was on the co-ed softball team. Roz was a sporty, athletic girl who also liked to watch "Snapped" on Oxygen.

Roslyn was a U.S. Navy veteran who spent several years abroad before moving to Charlotte, North Carolina. She served eight years as a Navy yeoman. She was an executive administrative assistant in Iraq, where she completed two tours. Through multiple deployments and work up cycles, she was never without a huge smile on her face. She also worked in Afghanistan as a civilian contractor for the U.S. Department of Defense.

Roslyn married her soulmate, the one who God sent to her, Ray Singleton, Jr., on November 4, 2018. Roz and Ray settled in Charlotte and began an extraordinary life together. Roz also had a passion for dressing other people. She worked as a stylist, and in 2020 she launched a clothing brand, "Eleven-Oh-Four" with her husband, named after their wedding date and dedicated to their love.

Roslyn spent her childhood in the Greater Faith and Joy Tabernacle Church under Reverend Ronald Williams and later became a member of First Calvary Baptist Church in Rock Hill, South Carolina, under the pastorate of Reverend William H. Buie, Jr. Roz loved the Lord and believed deeply in our Savior Jesus the Christ.

Roslyn fought a 12-year battle against brain cancer and was a living and loving miracle woman! Roz courageous and successful public battle against cancer inspired millions around the world. Roz and Ray became the face of Black Love for so many as they inspired television audiences on the Ellen Show, America's Got Talent, and the BET series "Black Love."

Roslyn enjoyed her life to the fullest while rockin' a bright smile and no-surrender attitude that helped countless others face their own health and emotional challenges. She showed the world how to find happiness and purpose in difficult situations. She shared her life and her love with the young and the old. She loved children, and they loved her!

She leaves to cherished memories to HER "Beloved" husband and best friend, Ray Singleton, Jr.; HER George, Deacon George Royal, Sr.; mother, Ms. Tracey L. Nathaniel; siblings, Jamerson M. Nathaniel and Joseph E. Nathaniel-Mims; mother-in-love, Trudy B. Lucas; father-in-love, Ray A. Singleton, Sr., (April); sister-in-love, Rachelle Singleton; grandmother-in-love, Ms. Victoria Singleton; uncles, Wilson Reinhardt, Anthony Taylor (Linda), Trent Nathaniel, George Royal, Jr., Robin E. Royal, Johnny P. Lucas (Cherrie), and Ronald Lucas (Mae); aunties, Mary O'Brien (Teddy), Deloris Tillman, Jeanette Dawkins, Vivian Holland (Reverend Albert), Thelma Lucas, Mary E. Greer, and Reverend Rossilind Daniels (Deacon Ladine), Laurreta Lucas, and Stephanie Singleton Cuthbertson (Vincent); a host of nieces, nephews, grandnieces, grandnephews, and cousins; special friends, Bucci Hickman, Jessica Reeder, Shakeia Kelly, and Dr. KaNisha Hall; neighbors, Jen, George, Stephanie, and Lolo; and special cousin, Dee-Dee Tillman.

Benediction and Committal

Recessional

THE DAY GOD TOOK YOU HOME

You never said, "I'm leaving."

You never said, "Good-bye."

You were gone before I knew it,

And only God knew why.

A million times I needed you;

A million times I cried.

If love alone could have saved you,

You never would have died.

In life, I loved you dearly;

In death, I love you still.

In my heart, you hold a place

That no one could ever fill.

*It broke my heart to lose
you,*

But you didn't go alone.

Part of me went with you

The day God took you home.

A LETTER TO ROS

SisterFriend,

As I'm sitting here writing this, the tears won't stop but in the midst of them I can't help but to smile. Thinking about all the times we shared and bond that formed and grow so quickly. If I haven't learned anything from your transitioning, I've learned that is not the amount of time that matters, but what you do in that time that counts! Your time was well spent sister! Because of you I will laugh more, love harder and never ever give up! You my sister gave us hope "YOU SHOCKED THE WORLD" and what a blessing it was to be part of your world! Because of you I am better, WE are better! I Love you so much, But I'm sure without a shadow of a doubt that you are EAT! Happy, healthy whole and back in the arms of your mother. No worries sister I promise to look after Ray, Mr. G , Ms.Tracy, Shakeia, Jess, Kanisha , Jenn, and Dede! We got it down here, you are of us from up there! No more worries. YOU WON, SISTER.

YOU WON. #It'sStillFOREVER

LOVING & MISSING YOU FOREVER.

YOUR SISTERFRIENDS,

Shakeia, Bucci, Jess, Kanisha, Jenn, and Dede
